
JULIE ANNA M GOLEBIEWSKI

Department of Economics
110 Eggers Hall
Maxwell School of Public Affairs
Syracuse University
Syracuse, NY 13244

(315) 443-9056 (Office)
(716) 208-6487 (Cell)
(315) 443-1081 (Fax)
jgolebie@maxwell.syr.edu
Last updated: October 2008

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Syracuse University, 2004 to present

Fields: Urban Economics, Public Finance, Education Policy

Dissertation: Topics in Education Finance and Policy

Expected Completion Date: Spring 2009

Primary Advisor: John Yinger

M.A., Economics, Syracuse University (completed May 2006)

B.A., Economics and Finance, Canisius College (completed May 2004)

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2005- present	Research Assistant , Center for Policy Research Education Cost Function Analysis, Prof. John Yinger
Summer 2007	Teaching Associate , Department of Economics Economic Ideas and Issues
Summer 2006	Research Assistant , Center for Policy Research Getting Down to Facts Project directed by Susanna Loeb of Stanford University Prof. John Yinger and William Duncombe
2004-2005	Teaching Assistant , Department of Economics Economic Ideas and Issues , Prof. Donald Dutkowsky (Fall 2004) Economic Ideas and Issues , Prof. Peter Howe (Spring 2005)

RESEARCH

“Twice as Nice: An Analysis of School District Efficiency with Two Measures of Student Performance.” (with John Yinger).

Job Market Paper: “Who Gives? The Determinants of Contributions to Education Foundations, Booster Clubs, and PTAs in California.” (with John Yinger).

“Grade A Athletes? An Evaluation of Statewide ‘No Pass, No Play’ Policies.”

PRESENTATIONS

National Tax Association (NTA) Annual Meeting, "Private Donations Filing the Gap in an Environment with Tax Limits: Education Foundations in California." Philadelphia, PA, November, 2008.

American Education Finance Association (AEFA) Annual Meeting, "Private Donations Filling the Gap in an Environment with Tax Limits: Education Foundations in California." Denver, CO, April, 2008.

American Education Finance Association (AEFA) Annual Meeting, "Twice As Nice: An Analysis of School District Efficiency with Two Performance Measures." Baltimore, MD, March, 2007.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Associate, Syracuse University, Summer 2007

Economic Ideas and Issues (Introductory Level Macro- and Microeconomics)

Solely responsible for conducting all lectures, assignments, and grading during an intensive summer course.

Teaching Assistant, Syracuse University, Fall 2004 and Spring 2005

Economic Ideas and Issues - Responsible for holding recitations and grading.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2006 Syracuse University, Center for Policy Research, Summer Research Assistantship

2004 Canisius College, Distinguished Senior Award

2004 Canisius College, Martin Luther King, Jr. Award

2004 Canisius College, Brady Award for Outstanding Senior Thesis

REFERENCES

John M. Yinger

Trustee Professor of Public Administration and Economics

Director of the Education Finance and Accountability Program (EFAP)

Syracuse University

[jyinger@maxwell.syr.edu](mailto: jyinger@maxwell.syr.edu)

(315) 443-9062

William D. Duncombe

Professor of Public Administration

Associate Director of EFAP

Syracuse University

[duncombe@maxwell.syr.edu](mailto: duncombe@maxwell.syr.edu)

(315) 443-4388

Jerry Evensky

Professor of Economics

Syracuse University

[jevensky@maxwell.syr.edu](mailto: jevensky@maxwell.syr.edu)

(315) 443-5863

Association Member: American Economic Association, American Education Finance Association, Alpha Sigma Nu (Jesuit University Honor Society), Di Gamma (Canisius College Honor Society), Beta Gamma Sigma (Professional Business Honor Society)